

Peace Road - Sunday, 6th August 2017, Berlin

Detailed plan

Dear participant,

here follows a detailed explanation about the Peace Road event on Sunday morning, 6 August.

Please read carefully until the end. Your cooperation is needed here and there.

We will have two different tours: one by bicycle (Peace Road) and another one on foot (Peace March). You can choose to participate in either of them. However, due to organisational reasons, only 80 people can participate in the Peace Road bicycle tour. Therefore, it is possible that upon registration at the event hotel on Saturday, we might have to ask some of the bicycle-tour-registrants to change to the Peace March.

PEACE MARCH Starts Sunday morning at 10:15 am with a rally in front of Brandenburg Gate. After the rally, from around 11 am, the group will walk through the government quarter and arrive at Friedrichstrasse Train Station one hour later. There you can choose if you want to 1) stop there and head home or follow your individual program or 2) continue to the Berlin Wall Main Memorial by train and close the Peace March there with a joint prayer and group photo. The official closing of the Peace March at the memorial site will be between 1 pm and 1:30 pm. (!!! in case you chose option 2: please buy a short-trip ticket "Kurzstrecke Berlin", 1,70 €, at the ticket machine beforehand on Saturday or Sunday early morning, so that we do not need to wait for everyone to purchase his/her ticket at the time of the march!!!)

PEACE ROAD Participants of this tour meet already at 9 am at Alexanderplatz - World Time Clock. There we will rent the bicycles and start to drive in groups of 10 people along the route of the former Berlin Wall. We will stop at several historical sights, marking the former division of the city. At 10:15 am the cyclists will join the rally in front of Brandenburg Gate and will continue their tour from there until they also arrive at the Berlin Wall Main Memorial. There they will join the closing prayer at 1 pm. After the official closing the cyclists need to go back to Alexanderplatz in order return their bicycles (approximately at around 2 pm).

The bicycle tour has a total length of 12 km.

Costs for renting a bicycle: 8 €. Please pay upon registration at the hotel on Saturday.
